

Malpractice and Maladministration Policy

1.0 Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that the integrity of qualifications is upheld by preventing malpractice or maladministration from occurring or dealing with actual incidents effectively.

2.0 Definition of Malpractice

Malpractice is essentially any activity or practice which deliberately contravenes regulations and compromises the integrity of the internal or external assessment process and/or the validity of certificates.

It covers any deliberate actions, neglect, default or other practice that compromises, or could compromise:

- the assessment process;
- the integrity of a regulated qualification;
- the validity of a result or certificate;
- the reputation and credibility of Regent Institute Middle East (RIME); or,
- the qualification or the wider qualifications community.

Malpractice may include a range of issues from the failure to maintain appropriate records or systems to the deliberate falsification of records in order to claim certificates. For the purpose of this policy this term also covers misconduct and forms of unnecessary discrimination or bias towards certain or groups of learners.

3.0 Definition of Maladministration

Maladministration is essentially any activity or practice which results in non-compliance with administrative regulations and requirements and includes the application of persistent mistakes or poor administration or payments within an institution (e.g., inappropriate learner records).

Examples of Malpractice and Maladministration may include:

- The categories listed below are examples of malpractice and maladministration. Please note that these examples are not exhaustive:
- Denial of access to premises, records, information, learners and staff to any authorised representative and / or the regulatory authorities.

- Submission of false information to gain a qualification or unit.
- Deliberate failure to adhere to, or to circumnavigate, the requirements of the Reasonable Adjustments and Special Considerations Policy.

4.0 Process for making an allegation of Malpractice or Maladministration

Anybody who identifies or is made aware of suspected or actual cases of malpractice or maladministration at any time must immediately notify the institution's management. In doing so they should put the details in writing / email and enclose appropriate supporting evidence.

All allegations must include (where possible):

- ✓ learner's name and unique registration number
- ✓ personnel details (name, job role) if they are involved in the case
- ✓ details of the qualification affected, or nature of the service affected
- ✓ nature of the suspected or actual malpractice and associated dates

In all cases of suspected malpractice and maladministration reported to, RIME will protect the identity of the 'informant' in accordance with our duty of confidentiality and / or any other legal duty
